Summertime at Hunterdon Hills Playhouse is the time of year when we look forward to the return of two of our favorite traditions: scheduling a spectacular musical production and having that production feature classic music from the great decades in American popular music. You can expect fantastic singing and dancing from our talented performers, the phenomenal sounds of our LIVE orchestra, beautiful costumes and scenery, and of course, the enduring songs and styles from our favorite eras - the music that has accompanied us all throughout our lives; music that is always BETTER WITH A BAND! Don't miss it!

Tues., Sept. 9th ~ "A Chorus Line"

Conceived and Choreographed by Michael Bennett ~ Book by James Kirkwood & Nicholas Dante

Music Written by Marvin Hamlisch, Lyrics by Ed Kleban. A CHORUS LINE is a stunning musical-verity about a chorus audition for a Broadway musical. It tells of the achingly poignant ambitions of professional Broadway gypsies to land a job in the show and is a powerful metaphor for all human aspiration. Memorable musical numbers include I Can Do That, At the Ballet, Dance: Ten; Looks: Three, The Music and the Mirror, What I Did for Love, One (Singular Sensation) and I Hope I Get It.

Sun., Nov. 9th ~ "Gypsy"

Gypsy is loosely based on the 1957 memoirs of Gypsy Rose Lee, the famous striptease artist, and focuses on her mother, Rose, whose name has become synonymous with "the ultimate show business mother". It has been referred to as the greatest American musical by numerous critics and writers. The score is full of toe-tapping songs including, "Everything's Coming up Roses", "Together Wherever We Go", and "Let Me Entertain You". Mr. Curless once again holds the reins for this closing production with the very talented Jennie Knackstedt playing the tantalizing role of Gypsy Rose Lee.

An ensemble cast of multi-talented performers celebrate Christmas in an original holiday song and dance fest featuring traditional carols, classic and contemporary Yuletide compositions, humorous skits, and spectacular dance numbers - all backed by a live onstage orchestra.
